

Newark & Suburban Architects

“The Holidays” Student Art Contest

Do you find architecture interesting? Do any places or buildings inspire you?
Do you think about how architecture and design influences our everyday lives? Do you like to draw or make art?

To celebrate the “The Holidays” the American Institute of Architects (AIA) of the Newark & Suburban area would like to see what places you like and find interesting.

What:

An art and drawing contest
Prizes totaling up to $500

Ages:

From 6th through 12th grade
Prizes awarded to two age groups: 6-8 and 9-12

Requirements:

- Create a drawing or a piece of art in any medium or submit a design of your own (line drawing, paint, 3D, collage, montage)
- The work must feature or have as a main focus a building, a group of buildings or a place defined by architecture
- Submissions by individual students only
- Include a very brief description
- The submission must have a feeling, a setting, or be inspired by one of our upcoming holidays

Deadline: Tuesday, December 17th, 2024, 11:59pm

Format: Single image, pdf, or jpeg

Submit your work 2 ways: On our website or by email!

Go to WWW.AIANS.ORG and complete the online form!

Or email your submission to director@aians.org

Questions: director@aians.org

Newark & Suburban Architects

"The Holidays" Student Art Contest

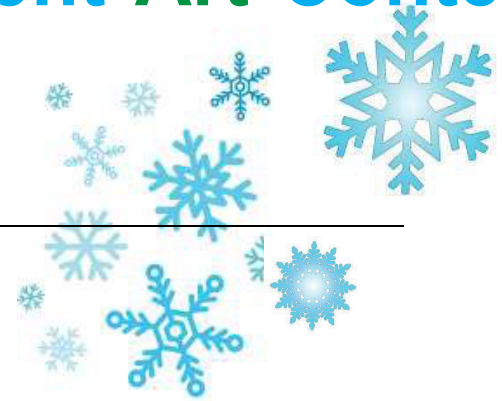

SUBMISSION FORM:

Name: _____ Grade: _____

District: _____ School: _____

Contact email: _____

Brief Description of your submission (100 words or less):

PARENTAL/GUARDIAN PERMISSION:

My child is permitted to make a submission to the AIA Newark & Suburban's Student Art Contest. I understand that my child's submission including their name, school, grade and brief project description may be displayed on AIA Newark & Suburban's website (aiana.org), Facebook page, Instagram account, and the submission may be used in promotional materials related to future student events and competitions.

Signature: _____

If you do not want your child's name displayed
please initial here: _____

Name: _____

If you do not want your child's school displayed
please initial here: _____

Contact email: _____